PREVAILING WAGE, CERTIFIED PAYROLL & COMPLIANCE TRAINING

Both California and Davis-Bacon Act Laws and Regulations covered

What every contractor should know about staying in compliance with California State Prevailing Wage

Course Description: This is a one-day Prevailing Wage Fundamentals course. This broad overview focuses on the HOW of California Prevailing Wage/Federal Davis Bacon Compliance as well as the WHY. It equips participants with a knowledge base that is vital to complying with these requirements. In this workshop, Labor Compliance professionals offer step-by-step guidelines for contractors and their personnel to understand and comply with the Davis Bacon Act and California State Prevailing Wages, as well as the intricacies of special holidays, travel and subsistence pay, new apprenticeship regulations, fringe benefits, and staying in compliance. This is a Facilitator led forum in which select professional representatives from various government contracting agencies that may include NAVFAC, Caltrans, and local Municipalities contribute to the learning. Apprenticeship requirements are presented by a representative from the AGC Apprenticeship program, and the fringe benefit requirements of the law are discussed by a representative of a bona fide fringe benefit trust plan.
