Construction Law Indemnity in Construction Made Simple

Course Description:

Practical advice on how to review and negotiate indemnity clauses in all settings and contexts of construction. Indemnity clauses are among the most important, yet misunderstood clauses in a construction contract. Business owners and senior project management at all tiers of construction projects must have an understanding of the risks involved with these clauses and practical strategies to efficiently protect their organization from unnecessary and unexpected loss

Learning Objectives/ Outcomes:

1. Understand the nuts and bolts of indemnity clauses in prime contracts, subcontracts, supplier contracts, and more.
2. Identify common pitfalls within indemnity provisions of all tiers on private, public, commercial, residential, and Federal/State projects.
3. Participate in a workshop to put practical strategies to work in assessing indemnity clauses.

Target Audience: Senior company executives, project managers, contracts administrators, and in-house counsel.

Presenters:

David S. Demian and Christopher R. Sillari
